PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

"MARRIAGE ACT."

WHEREAS Howard Wesley Scott and Alice May Lehman, of North Kamloops and Clearwater, respectively, in the Province of British Columbia, were by Licence Number 32991B, duly issued, purported to be joined in matrimony by the Rev. Malcolm Stewart Blackburn, at the Presbyterian Manse, Kamloops, on the 24th day of September, 1938:

And whereas it appears that the Rev. Malcolm Stewart Blackburn was not, at that time, authorized under the provisions of the "Marriage Act" to perform the ceremony of marriage between the said parties:

And whereas evidence, by statutory declaration, has been filed with me in the terms of section 36 of the "Marriage Act":

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, by virtue of the powers in me vested by said section 36, do hereby declare the requirements of the "Marriage Act" as to the registration of the Rev. Malcolm Stewart Blackburn to solemnize marriages to be waived in respect of the marriage ceremony performed by him as aforesaid; and I do hereby further, by virtue of said powers, declare that the said marriage shall be deemed to be and is and has been from the date of the solemnization thereof a lawful and valid marriage.

Given under my hand at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, this fifteenth day of November, 1938.

AGRICULTURE.

"BEEF GRADING ACT."

REGULATIONS.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 3 of the "Beef Grading Act," being chapter 4 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1937, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of the following regulations:—

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Act" means the "Beef Grading Act":

"Area" means the Cities of New Westminster, North Vancouver and Vancouver, and the Municipalities of Burnaby, West Vancouver, and the District of North Vancouver:

"Brand" means any mark, stencil, stamp, or label placed on beef for the purpose of designating grade:

"Frozen beef" means beef that has been subjected to refrigeration sufficient to congeal the body fluids, and "frozen" has a corresponding meaning:

"Inspector" means any Inspector appointed by these regulations:

"Minister" means the Minister of Agriculture:

"Official standard" means the grade of beef as prescribed by these regulations.

2. The following grades for beef are established:—

GRADE A1.

This grade comprises only choice carcasses of steers or heifers having the following characteristics: Excellent conformation, finish, and quality, except that in the case of a carcass in the fed-calf class allowance may be made in regard to the degree of finish; relatively short and blocky; heavily and uniformly fleshed throughout; rounds, loins, and ribs very well developed; chucks and plates very thick and heavily fleshed; neck short and well filled; shanks short and well muscled, flesh firm, velvety, fine-grained, and of an attractive light or cherry-red colour; marbling present in the loins and ribs; cartilages on the chine and breast-bone pearly white, but may be slightly ossified; bones may be soft and red or slightly hardened and of greyish-white colour; exterior surface of the carcass, except in the case of fed calves, covered with brittle fat, white or slightly high in colour, but not approaching a yellowish tinge, smooth or slightly wavy; no wastiness in interior covering.

GRADE A.

This grade comprises only good carcasses of steers or heifers having the following characteristics: Good conformation, finish, and quality; rounds, loins, and ribs reasonably full; chucks and plates moderately thick; neck reasonably short and thick; flesh moderately firm; colour ranging from a light cherry-red to a slightly darker red, but not excessively dark; the "eye" of the rib and loin above the average in thickness; some marbling present in the thicker cuts; the fat covering extending well over the exterior surfaces, but may be somewhat lacking on the neck and lower parts of the rounds, shoulders, and shanks; hips and shoulder points may be slightly visible; the fat covering reasonably firm, smooth, and white, but may be somewhat soft or have a slightly yellowish tinge; the kidney, crotch, cod, or udder interior fats moderate in quantity but may be somewhat wasty; the interior walls of the fore-quarters at least partially covered.

GRADE B.

This grade comprises only carcasses of steers, heifers, or cows.

With respect to steers or heifers the carcasses have the following characteristics: Carcass relatively long in proportion to its width and inclined to be slightly angular; hip and shoulder joints noticeable but not prominent; ribs, loins, and rounds moderately thick; the fat covering extended well over most of the exterior surface, but may be rough, wavy, or inclined to be gobby at the hock-bones and tail end; the interior of the carcass reasonably well covered with fat; cod, kidney, and crotch, and other interior fats in moderate supply or somewhat wasty; fat firm and brittle, but it may have a yellowish tinge; flesh moderately firm but may be slightly soft; the eye of the rib and loin of average thickness; marbling present in the thicker cuts.

With respect to cows the carcass has the following characteristics: Good finish, conformation, and quality; rounds thick but not bulgy; loins may be somewhat flat; rib, chuck, plate, and brisket moderately thick; hip and shoulder joints slightly prominent but well covered; exterior fat extending well over the carcass; interior fats plentiful over the kidney and in the crotch; fats firm, creamy to yellowish in colour, and crumble easily; flesh firm, fine-grained, well marbled, and of good colour.

GRADE C.

This grade comprises only the carcasses of steers, heifers, or cows.

With respect to steers or heifers the carcasses have the following characteristics: Average finish, conformation, and quality; carcass may be somewhat angular; rounds reasonably thick or tapering and not full towards the shank; loins and ribs moderately full but may be inclined to flatness; rib, chuck, and plate broad but possessing average depth of flesh; neck long and tapering; hip and shoulder joints prominent; the eye of the rib lacking thickness; a moderately thin layer of fat covering the rib, loin, and chuck; all fats may be somewhat soft and have a yellowish tinge; flesh may be soft and slightly dark in colour; some marbling present in the loin, rib, and chuck.

With respect to cows the carcass has the following characteristics: Average finish, conformation, and quality; carcass may have a pronounced curve in the back just forward of the rump; loin and rib may be flat; the rounds long and tapering; the carcass relatively angular with hip and shoulder joints prominent; the eye of the loin and rib above average in thickness; the flesh firm, fine-grained, and of good colour, showing some marbling; the carcass well covered with fat, which may be somewhat unevenly distributed and inclined to be rough and gobby on rib, loin, and tail end; interior fats may be plentiful, especially over the kidney and in the crotch, and may have a somewhat high colour.

GRADE D.

This grade comprises only carcasses of steers, heifers, or cows.

With respect to steers and heifers the carcasses have the following conformation: Carcass rangy and angular and irregular; the rounds, loins, and ribs thinly fleshed and lightly covered; the eye of the rib lacking in size and flesh, and usually dark in colour; little or no marbling present.

Cows in this grade of fair quality; somewhat rangy and angular; rounds long, thin, and tapering; the loins and ribs thin and slightly dished; a moderate amount of fat covering the back, extending from chuck to rump; the eye of the rib and loin relatively small; flesh usually moderately firm.

3. The following brands for the respective grades of beef are established:—

For Grade A1—the designation “A1” in red.

For Grade A—the letter “A” in red.

For Grade B—the letter “B” in blue.

For Grade C—the letter “C” in yellow.

For Grade D—the letter “D” in brown.

In addition to the letter denoting their grade, cow carcasses will also be marked “cow.”

4. Any Inspector may grade beef in accordance with the official standards.

5. No Inspector shall grade beef until the beef has been inspected and stamped as approved by the Health of Animals Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, or by an official of any city or municipality designated by such city or municipality with the approval of the Minister for the purpose of inspecting or approving beef.

6. When beef has been graded by an Inspector, the owner of the beef shall, under the supervision and in accordance with the directions of an Inspector, mark the beef with the brand appropriate to the grade of beef. No person shall mark beef with any brand except in accordance with this regulation.

7. The Inspector designated for that purpose by the Minister shall have custody of the branding equipment and shall not permit any other person to have unauthorized possession thereof.

8. No person shall, within the area, keep for sale or sell any beef which has been frozen, unless the beef before being frozen was branded in accordance with Regulation No. 6.

9. No person shall, within the area, keep for sale, display for sale, or sell any beef unless the beef has been branded in accordance with Regulation No. 6.

10. No person shall, within the area, display for sale beef which has been frozen, unless he displays also a card stating that the beef has been frozen.

11. No person shall advertise beef for sale, within the area, unless the advertisement prominently sets forth the grade of the beef advertised and, in the case of frozen beef, unless the advertisement also sets forth prominently the fact that it has been frozen.

12. Where beef is displayed for sale, within the area, with a price card or ticket, the person displaying the beef shall cause the card or ticket to carry the grade of the beef in letters as large and as prominent as the letters or figures indicating the price, and in the case of frozen beef shall cause the card or ticket to bear the word “Frozen” in letters equally large and prominent.

13. The following persons are appointed first inspectors to carry out the provisions of the Act and these regulations, namely: Matthew Vincent Campbell, Roy Trimble, and Walter Sandall, all of Vancouver.

14. Every Inspector shall, within the area, have, in addition to the powers conferred upon him by the Act, the following powers:—

(a.) To take, remove, keep, and confiscate such portion as he may think proper or the whole of any beef carcass which, in his opinion, is not graded or branded in accordance with the provisions of the Act or of these regulations:

(b.) To take, remove, keep, and confiscate any price card or ticket or display or advertising material which, in his opinion, violates the provisions of the Act or of these regulations.

15. Any Inspector may, in his discretion, by a certificate under his hand in a form prescribed by the Minister, exempt any beef carcass, and the owner thereof in respect of such beef carcass, from these regulations, and the exemption shall be subject to such conditions as are set forth in the certificate.

16. These regulations shall not apply to the keeping for sale or to the sale, within the area, of any beef carcass which is intended to be and is transported out of the area, but if such beef carcass is brought back into the area these regulations shall apply.

17. These regulations shall apply only within the area.

18. All regulations heretofore made under the "Beef Grading Act" are hereby rescinded and the foregoing regulations are submitted therefor.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(l.) To engage in the business of aerial and other photography, and to obtain copyrights thereof, and to sell or otherwise dispose of photographs or aerial post-cards:

(m.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (Government, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any licences, permits, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry on or exercise and comply with any such arrangements, licences, permits, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, copyrights, concessions, trade-marks, steam processes (British, Canadian, and foreign) as to any invention, improvements, or processes which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(o.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which may be deemed desirable, and to buy, sell, hold, own, and deal in the same or any of them:

(p.) To insure in any fire, accident, life, or other insurance company any of the Company's property or any of the Company's officers, employees, servants, agents, shareholders, passengers, or goods, or the purchasers of any of the Company's property:

(q.) To enter into any contract for the bonding or insuring of any officer, employee, servant, or agent of the Company, or the Company itself, or for indemnifying the Company, or any person, persons, or corporation having any dealings with the Company, against loss or damage arising out of or resulting from the acts or deeds of such officers, employees, servants, or agents, or of the Company itself:

(r.) To apply for, accept, take, hold, sell, dispose of, and deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, or other securities of any other company, person, or firm:

(s.) To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any company, society, syndicate, partnership, or person formed for all or any part of the purposes within the objects of this Company, and to conduct and carry on or liquidate and wind up any such business, and to purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Company any estates, lands, buildings, easements, or other interest in real estate, and to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of or grant rights over any real property belonging to the Company:

(t.) To pay for any property, rights, or services acquired by the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue or partly to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally upon such terms as the directors may determine, including granting options of taking up shares of the Company:

(u.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(v.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligations of any such company:

(w.) To enter into any partnership or any joint-purse arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm, or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(x.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(y.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(z.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(aa.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock payable to bearer, or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(bb.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company, or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object, and to make gifts or donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever:

(cc.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(dd.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause when not applied to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Northwest Oil Company, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 15th day of November, 1938.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two thousand five hundred shares of ten dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 916 Stock Exchange Building, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of oil merchants in all its branches, and to buy and sell oil of every description and every product thereof, and packages and cases for holding the same, and to contract for, distribute, market, and deal in the same in any manner which may be convenient, and to carry on all or any of the business of producing, refining, storage, transport, supply, and distribution of every description of petroleum and petroleum products, and also the business of forwarding agents or warehousemen, or any other trade or business whatsoever which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the Company in connection therewith or with the general business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's assets, property, or rights:

(b.) To carry on the business of transporting petroleum and other mineral oils, gases, and the products thereof by means of pipe-lines and other means of conveyance and transportation, including ships and other vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, and other vehicles, and to carry on such business as is, directly or indirectly, incidental to such transportation, or which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by this Company in connection therewith, or which is calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of this Company's assets, property, and rights:

(c.) To build, buy, sell, deal in, equip, operate, charter, mortgage, lease, and own steamships, sailing-ships, boats, aircraft, automobiles, railroad or other cars, and vehicles of every kind or description, wharves, water rights, piers, hangars, airdromes, garages, or other structures, together with their apparel, tackles, appliances, and fittings, and any other property to be used in connection with the general business of the Company:

(d.) To explore, develop, work, mine, or otherwise improve real property, both within and without the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada, and in any part of the world, either owned, leased, or otherwise held by this Company as its property, either as principal, agent, or otherwise, or owned, leased, or otherwise held by any other individual, firm, company, corporation, state, territory, or political subdivision thereof, for the purpose of acquiring oil, gas, or the mineral products or other products of which said property is composed, contains, or may produce, to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in and with all kinds of devices and machinery related in any manner whatsoever with the development, mining, improving, handling, drilling, pumping, storing, and refining of oil, its products or any products of any of said property, also to manufacture, prepare for market, transport, import, export, deal in, and with any article or product of any kind or nature whatsoever, hereby intending to acquire by purchase or manufacture, or otherwise, all supplies and materials necessary or convenient for use in accomplishing the objects herein mentioned:

(e.) To purchase for the purpose of holding, occupying, and using the same, or to be leased or sold for profit, or given away, or donated, and to otherwise acquire, lease, hold, own, maintain, work, improve, mine, develop, sell, mortgage, convey, or otherwise dispose of without limit as to value, price, quality, area, or environment, both within and without the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada and in any part of the world, real estate and real property, and any and all interests and rights therein:

(f.) To manufacture, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer and convey, trade, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, and property of every class, variety, and description, whether produced by said Company or other companies, corporations, firms, or individuals; to build, repair, maintain, acquire by purchase or otherwise, and operate machines and mechanical contrivances of all kinds and descriptions:

(g.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the good-will, trade-marks, trade-names, and all other rights and interests in or pertaining to any business whatever, and to conduct, control, and manage the same, and to assume, entirely or in part, the payment of the debts and liabilities of any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, and to pay for the properties, assets, and rights of any such person, firm, association, company, or corporation in cash, stock of this Company, or with its bonds, or with the stock or bonds of other companies, corporations, persons, firms, or associations, or with other property, or otherwise:

(h.) To discover and make inventions, and institute and carry through to final decision proceedings for letters patent on inventions of said Company or of others in the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof, and in any and all countries of the world; to apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and hold, own, use, operate, introduce, and sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of any and all trade-marks, trade-names, licences, and concessions, and all inventions, improvements, and processes used in connection with or secured under letters patent, or otherwise, of the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof, or of any and all countries of the world, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, any such trade-marks, patents, licences, concessions, processes, and the like, or any such property, rights, and information so acquired, and, with a view to the working and developing of the same, to carry on any business, whether mining, manufacturing, or otherwise, which said Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate and accomplish these purposes:

(i.) The objects set forth in any subclause of paragraph 3 hereof, and in section 22 of the "Companies Act" and amendments thereto, shall not, except when the context so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified, or the powers conferred thereby and by section 22 of the "Companies Act" aforesaid, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of paragraph 3 hereof, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of paragraph 3 hereof and by section 22 of the "Companies Act" aforesaid, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of paragraph 3 hereof.
